Race begins at 6:00 p.m.

Presented by The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law

Please join us on Thursday, September 23 for Race Judicata, an annual charity 5k run/1 mile walk sponsored by the Moritz College of Law Student Bar Association. The purpose of the race is to bring students and professionals together for a charitable endeavor, reinforce the importance of community service at our University, and raise money for a charitable cause. This event is among the law school's most important community service projects, and your participation in this year's race will help to ensure its continued success.

Proceeds from this year's race will be donated to the Columbus Bar Foundation, a philanthropic organization supported by Central Ohio's legal community. Through grants, the Foundation provides seed money and support for a variety of programs such as: providing female and minority law students with scholarships; assisting children and victims of domestic violence through the Legal Aid Society of Columbus and Columbus Coalition Against Family Violence; operating Lawyers for Justice, the Columbus Bar's pro bono program; supporting the Center for Child and Family Advocacy at Children's Hospital; funding educational programs at central Ohio law schools; and many others. Additional information about the Foundation is available at <http://www.columbusbarfoundation.org/>.
